

Knee Replacement Surgery

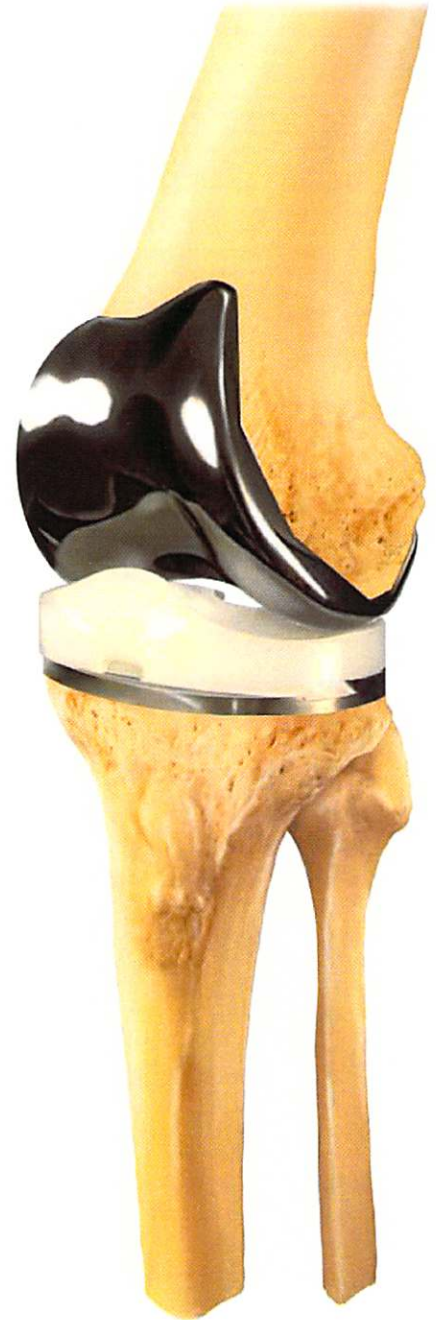

A knee joint with advanced osteoarthritis.

The most appropriate implants are chosen.

The ends of the femur and tibia are shaped for the implant components

The implants are securely fixed into place.